Log #1072506

TO: Chief Administrator
Independent Police Review Authority

FROM: Inv. Shannon Hayes, #137

SUBJECT: Telephone Contact with [REDACTED]

On 12 November 2014, at approximately 1006 hours, the R/I spoke to the reporting party, [REDACTED] related that she dropped her 14- and 16-year-old children at the laundromat so they could do laundry. When she returned to pick them up, she was upset that the laundry was not done. She argued with her children about why the laundry was not done. During the argument, her son knocked the basket of clothing onto the floor. Ms. [REDACTED] got into a physical fight with her children because "it looked like they wanted to jump on [her]." Two police officers arrived after the fight was over. Ms. [REDACTED] did not know who called the police but assumed that it was one of the laundromat employees. One of the officers never spoke to Ms. [REDACTED]. The other officer, identified as "Officer Robertson," asked her what happened. When Ms. [REDACTED] recounted the fight, Officer Robertson said, "That's not what she said." Ms. [REDACTED] did not know who the officer was talking about. (It should be noted that the related CPD reports indicate the officer was referring to Ms. [REDACTED] daughter.) Officer Robertson asked Ms. [REDACTED] for her name and other information. Ms. [REDACTED] refused to answer the officer's questions because she thought that they were not necessary. Ms. [REDACTED] turned away from the officer to continue putting her clothing into the laundry bag. The officer grabbed hold of Ms. [REDACTED] arm and "twisted it." When the R/I asked for further clarification about the twisting motion, Ms. [REDACTED] stated that the officer squeezed her, twisted it to the right, and said, "Come here." Ms. [REDACTED] related that the officer was standing to her right at this point. The officer did not appear to be pulling her toward him and did not twist the arm behind her back. Ms. [REDACTED] turned back toward him as he twisted her arm. She told him to release her arm. Instead, Officer Robertson handcuffed Ms. [REDACTED] and put her in the back of the squad car. Officer Robertson then went to talk to Ms. [REDACTED] children and the other people in the laundromat. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that she suffers from asthma and had been talking a lot, so she was having trouble breathing. When Officer Robertson returned to the car to talk to Ms. Robertson, she told him that she was having trouble breathing in the closed squad car. Ms. Robertson stated that this was the first time she said anything to Officer Robertson about it. The officer then rolled down the window so Ms. [REDACTED] could get some air. A sergeant arrived and sent Ms. [REDACTED] children to the hospital so they could be treated for the injuries that Ms. [REDACTED] caused during their fight. Officer Robertson brought Ms. [REDACTED] to the hospital when she complained of pain to her wrist. She was diagnosed with bruises to her wrist.

[REDACTED] After receiving the above description of the incident, the R/I informed Ms. [REDACTED] that an in-person interview was probably not needed but that someone from

Att.#

IPRA would contact her if further information was needed. Ms. [REDACTED] thanked the R/I and appeared to be satisfied with the conversation. This report is being submitted for review by Coordinator Andrea Stoutenborough.
